Meet Ray McNamara

Senior Business Development Manager – Vending

Working in the vending industry for 34 years has provided me with valuable experience and the opportunity to build relationships with great people - including the amazing team at Go-Pak! Outside of work, I enjoy following Chelsea FC, traveling with friends, and playing golf. Having lived in London for over 60 years, I am fortunate to be close to many West End shows and music venues. I also enjoy spending time with family, enjoying meals and the occasional glass of wine!

Keep cool this summer with our Go-Chill range of paper Ice Cream Tubs and Cold Cups!
